

It's amazing.

Thanks, Dylan!

Ah, the name's David.

Welcome
to freshmen
biology, Amy. I'm
Ms. Wexler.

Today
we're observing
a coral reef.

Here's
a field
notebook.

Record what you see
and try to come up with a hypothesis about what the food chain is like in

Good lord,
is this your first
time using net
gear glasses?

Um...
yes?

Wow.

How
about
now?

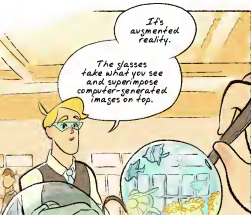

*How
does this work?*

*It's augmented
reality.*

*The glasses
take what you see
and superimpose
computer-generated
images on top.*

Do
you see
the little gear icon
at the top right
corner?

Yeah.

Click
that.

Okay.

*blink
blink*

Now,
go down
to "view"
and
then click
"augmented

Okay...

*It
says...*

...scanning.

*Ooh.
Sorry.*

*I should have warned
you.*

*What
was that?*
